Attendance Policy

Objective

The purpose of this policy is to set forth Pettit Staffing Service's policy and procedures for handling employee absences and tardiness to promote the efficient operation of the company and minimize unscheduled absences.

Policy-Punctual and regular attendance is an essential responsibility of each employee at Pettit Staffing. Employees are expected to report to work as scheduled, on time and prepared to start working. Employees also are expected to remain at work for their entire work schedule. Late arrival, early departure or other absences from scheduled hours are disruptive and must be avoided. Should you start late, please call or text Pettit Staffing to advise them, prior to your scheduled start time.

PETTIT STAFFING : Mobile/Text: 503-856-5856 Office: 503-419-6484

This policy does not apply to absences covered by the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) or leave provided as a reasonable accommodation under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). These exceptions are described in separate policies. Absence "Absence" is defined as the failure of an employee to report for work when he or she is scheduled to work. The two types of absences are defined below:

- Excused absence occurs when all the following conditions are met:
 - The employee provides to Pettit Staffing sufficient notice at least 1 hour in advance of the absence.
 - The absence request is approved in advance by Pettit Staffing..
- Unexcused absence occurs when any of the above conditions are not met. If it is necessary for an employee to be absent or late for work because of an illness or an emergency, the employee must notify Pettit Staffing. An unexcused absence counts as one occurrence for the purposes of discipline under this policy.

Employees with three or more consecutive days of excused absences because of illness or injury must give Pettit Staffing proof of physician's care prior to returning to work.

Tardiness and Early Departures

Employees are expected to report to work and return from scheduled breaks on time. If employees cannot report to work as scheduled, they must notify Pettit Staffing no later than their regular starting time. This notification does not excuse the tardiness, unless approved, but simply notifies Pettit Staffing that a schedule change may be necessary.

Employees who must leave work before the end of their scheduled shift must notify Pettit Staffing immediately.

Tardiness and early departures are each one-half an occurrence for the purpose of discipline under this policy unless approved by Pettit staffing.

Disciplinary Action

Excessive absenteeism is defined as four or more occurrences of unexcused absence in a 90-day period and will result in disciplinary action.

Job Abandonment

Any employee who fails to report to work for a period of three days or more without notifying Pettit Staffing will be considered to have abandoned the job and voluntarily terminated the employment relationship.

Oregon Sick Leave

You get at least 1 hour of protected sick time for every 30 hours you work up to 40 hours per year. (Employers can choose to frontload at least 40 hours of sick time at the beginning of the year.)

You can start taking sick time after you've worked for your employer for at least 90 days.

"Sick time" is protected time when you are allowed to miss work to take care of yourself or a family member that is sick, injured, experiencing mental illness, or needs to visit the doctor.
